BY THE HONOURABLE

GEORGE THOMAS, Esq;

Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennsylvania, and the Three Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex upon Delaware;

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS I have this Day received an Order of his Majesty in Council, bearing Date the 25th Day of May last, in the Words following.

'UPON [illegible] the Board 'a Report from the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council for Plantation 'Affairs, Dated the Fourth of this 'Instant, in the Words following, 'viz.

'YOUR Majesty, having been pleased by your Orders in Council of the 17th of March 1736,7, and the 21st of July 1737, to refer unto this Committee, several Petitions from the President, Council, and General Assembly of the Province of Pennsylvania; and likewise from the Governor and Council, and the Commissary and Clergy of the Province of Maryland; which Petitions represent (amongst other Things) that great Disorders and Outrages have been committed upon the Borders of the said respective Provinces; and Humbly Praying your Majesty's most Gracious Interposition and Commands for the Preservation of the Peace, on the said Borders, until the Boundaries of the said Provinces shall be finally settled and adjusted.---THE Lords of the Committee of Council, did on the 29th of the said Month of July, take the Matter of the said Complaints into their Consideration, and thereupon reported to your Majesty, what they thought most adviseable for your Majesty to do, in Order to prevent the further Continuance of the said Disorders, and to preserve Peace and Tranquility on the said Borders, until the Boundaries should be finally settled. And your Majesty having approved of what was proposed by the said Report, was pleased by your Order in Council of the 15th of August 1737, to direct as follows, viz.

" That the Governors of the respective Provinces of Maryland and Pennsylvania, for the time being, Do not, upon Pain of incurring His Majesty's highest Displeasure, permit or suffer any Tumults, Riots or other outrageous Disorders to be committed on the Borders of their respective Provinces; but that they do immediately put a Stop thereto, and use their utmost Endeavours to preserve Peace and good Order amongst all His Majesty's Subjects under their Government, inhabiting the said Borders. And as a Means to preserve Peace and Tranquility on the " said Borders, His Majesty doth hereby enjoyn the said " Governors, That they do not make Grants of any Parts " of the Lands in Contest between the Proprietors re- " spectively, nor of any Part of the Three Lower Counties, " commonly called New-Castle, Kent and Sussex; nor per- " mit any Person to settle there, or even to make an At- " tempt to make a Settlement thereon, till His Majesty's " Pleasure shall be further signified. And His Majesty " is further pleased to direct that this Order, together with " Duplicates thereof, be delivered to the Proprietors of " the said Provinces, who are hereby required, to transmit " the same forthwith to the Governors of the said respec- " tive Provinces accordingly."

'THAT since the issuing the said Order, Your Majesty 'hath been pleased to refer unto this Committee, an Address of the Deputy-Governor, and of the Upper and 'Lower Houses of Assembly of the Province of Maryland, 'relating to a Continuance of the said Disorders; and also 'two Petitions, the one in the Name of John, Thomas and 'Richard Penn, Esqrs; Proprietors of the Province of Pennsylvania; praying your Majesty's further Pleasure may be 'signified, relating to your Majesty's afore-recited Order 'in Council of the 18th of August 1737; and the other in 'the Name of the Agent of the said Province of Pennsylvania; complaining of fresh Disorders committed by the Inhabitants of Maryland, against those of Pennsylvania: 'Whereupon the Lords of the Committee did on the 23d 'of February last, proceed to take all the Papers relating 'to the Complaints made by each of the said Provinces, 'into Consideration; and were attended by Counsel on 'both Sides, and likewise by the Proprietors of the said 'Provinces; and the Counsel desiring that some reasonable 'time might be allowed the Proprietors to confer together, 'in order to come to some Agreement amongst themselves, 'that so the Peace and Tranquility of both Provinces may 'be preserved, until such time as the Boundaries can be 'finally settled: ---- The Lords of the Committee thought 'proper to comply with such their Request; and being 'this Day again attended by all Parties, the Counsel acquainted the Committee that the Proprietors of each Province had accordingly met and agreed to the following 'Propositions, viz.

'I. That so much of His Majesty's Order in Council of the 18th of August 1737, as orders, That the Governors of the respective Provinces of Maryland and Pennsylvania, for the Time being, do not upon Pain of incurring His Majesty's highest Displeasure, permit or suffer any Tumults, Riots or other outrageous Disorders to be committed on the Borders of their respective Provinces, but that they do immediately put a Stop thereto, and use their utmost Endeavours to preserve Peace and good Order amongst all His Majesty's Subjects under their Government, inhabiting the said Borders; do stand in Force and be observed. II. That there being no Riots, that appear to have been committed within the Three Lower Counties of New-Castle, Kent, and Sussex upon Delaware; it is therefore not thought necessary to continue the latter Part of the said Order in Council, as to the said Three Lower Counties; but that the same former Order in Council, so far as relates relates to the ſaid Three Lower Counties, be diſcharged without Prejudice to either of the Proprietors, as if the ſame had never been made. III. That all other Lands, in Conteſt between the ſaid Proprietors, now poſſeſſed by or under either of them, ſhall remain in the Poſſeſſion as they now are, (although beyond the Temporary Limits hereafter mentioned) and alſo the Juriſdiction of the reſpective Proprietors ſhall continue over ſuch Lands, until the Boundaries ſhall be finally ſettled; and that the Tenants of either Side, ſhall not attorn to the other; nor ſhall either of the Proprietors, or their Officers, receive or accept of Attornments from the Tenants of the other Proprietor. IV. That as to all vacant Lands in Conteſt between the Proprietors, not lying within either of the Three Lower Counties, and not now poſſeſſed by or under either of them; on the Eaſt Side of the River Saſquehannah, down ſo far South as Fifteen Miles and one Quarter of a Mile South of the Latitude of the moſt Southern Part of the City of Philadelphia; and on the Weſt Side of the ſaid River Saſquehannah, down ſo far South as Fourteen Miles and Three-Quarters of a Mile South of the Latitude of the moſt Southern Part of the City of Philadelphia, the Temporary Juriſdiction over the ſame is agreed to be exerciſed by the Proprietors of Pennſylvania, and their Governor, Courts, and Officers. And as to all ſuch vacant Lands in Conteſt between the Proprietors, and not now poſſeſſed by or under either of them, on both Sides of the ſaid River Saſquehannah, South of the reſpective Southern Limits in this Paragraph before mentioned; the Temporary Juriſdiction over the ſame is agreed to be exerciſed by the Proprietor of Maryland, and his Governor, Courts and Officers, without Prejudice to either Proprietor, and until the Boundaries ſhall be finally ſettled. V. That the reſpective Proprietors, ſhall be at free Liberty to grant out on the common and uſual Terms, all or any vacant Lands within the ſaid Provinces of Pennſylvania and Maryland, in Conteſt between the ſaid Proprietors (that is to ſay, within their own reſpective Sides of the ſaid ſeveral Limits, mentioned in the laſt foregoing Paragraph): For the which Lands, and the Profits of the ſame alſo, each Proprietor ſhall account to the other, who may be adjudged to be the Proprietor thereof, upon the final Determination of the Boundaries between the two Provinces. VI. That all Priſoners on both Sides, on account of being concerned in any Riots or Diſturbances, relating to the Bounds, or for any Act or Thing done thereat, or for any other Act touching the Rights of either of the ſaid Provinces, in relation to their Bounds; be forthwith releaſed and diſcharged, on entering into their own reſpective Recognizances, in a reaſonable Sum, to appear and ſubmit to Tryal, when called upon, by further Order from his Majeſty. VII. That this be declared to be a Proviſional and Temporary Order, to continue until the Boundaries ſhall be finally ſettled, and declared to be without Prejudice to either Party. VIII. That His Majeſty be moſt humbly moved to diſcharge ſo much of the Order of the 18th of Auguſt 1737, as varies from this Agreement; and that the ſeveral other Petitions of Complaint, now depending before His Majeſty in Council, relating to any Diſturbances, may be withdrawn by the reſpective Petitioners.'

'To which Propoſitions, the Proprietors of each Province ſignified their Conſent before the Committee, and declared their readineſs to carry the ſame into Execution, if Your Majeſty ſhall be pleaſed to approve thereof: And the Committee conſidering that this Agreement may be a proper Expedient for reſtoring Peace and Tranquility between the ſaid Provinces, and for preventing any the like Diſturbances for the future; do therefore agree humbly to lay the ſame before Your Majeſty for Your Royal Approbation.'

'HIS Majesty this Day took the ſaid Report into Conſideration, and in Order to preſerve Peace and Tranquility between the ſaid Provinces, and to prevent any the like Diſturbances for the future; is pleaſed with the Advice of his Privy Council, to approve of the ſaid Agreement, enter'd into between the Proprietors of the ſaid reſpective Provinces. And His Majeſty is hereby pleaſed to Order, that the Proprietors of the ſaid reſpective Provinces of Maryland and Pennſylvania, do cauſe the ſaid Agreement to be carried into Execution. Whereof the ſaid Proprietors, and all others whom it may concern, are to take Notice and govern themſelves accordingly.'

NOW to the End that all His Majeſty's Subjects within this Government, may have Notice thereof, and pay all due Obedience to His Majeſty's Royal Will and Pleaſure ſignified therein, I do hereby ſtrictly require and enjoin all and every the Magiſtrates, Sheriffs and other Officers, and all other Perſons whatſoever in the ſaid Government, not only to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours for preventing and ſuppreſſing all Tumults, Riots, or other outrageous Diſorders aforeſaid; but to be vigilant and careful in cauſing all the other Commands and Directions of the ſaid Royal Order to be punctually obſerved and complied with, as far as in them lies; and all and every the Sheriffs of this Government are hereby required and commanded to publiſh this Proclamation at the Court-Houſe of their reſpective Counties, and to cauſe Copies thereof to be affixed at the moſt publick Places of the ſaid Counties, that none may pretend Ignorance of the ſame.

GIVEN at Philadelphia, under my Hand and the Great Seal of the Province of Pennſylvania, the Twenty-Ninth Day of Auguſt 1738; in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Second; by the Grace of God, of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

By Command, GEORGE THOMAS.

THOMAS LAWRIE, Secry.

LONDON, June 2.

Extract of a Letter from l'Orient, dated May 26, 1738, which came along with the Letters from Paris of the 4th of June N. S.

IN the Night between the 11th and 12th of October laſt, there happen'd a furious Hurricane at the Mouth of the Ganges, which reach'd 60 Leagues up the River, and though all the Mariners foreſaw it, and took all the neceſſary Precautions, yet it was ſo violent that it render'd all their Care uſeleſs, and moreover coming in the Night along with a heavy Rain, which raiſed 15 Inches Water in the ſpace of ſix Hours, the Sailors could not work the Ships, but were thrown whither the Waves carry'd them, without being able to defend themſelves. To increaſe their Misfortunes, they had at the ſame time a violent Shock of an Earthquake, which threw down a great Number of Houſes along the River Side; in Golgota alone, a Poſt belonging to the Engliſh, about ſeven Leagues below Chandernagoe, 200 Houſes were thrown down; and what is moſt particular in this Event, is, that the high and magnificent Steeple of the Engliſh Church ſunk into the Ground without breaking, and no more remains of it now than juſt to ſay, Olim Troja fuit. It is computed that 20,000 Ships, Barks, Boats, Sloops, Canoes, &c. have been caſt away by this Accident; of nine Engliſh Ships then in the Ganges, two of 500 Tons were thrown into a Village above 200 Fathoms from the Bed of the River, broke to pieces, and all the Equipage drown'd pell mell amongſt the Inhabitants and the Cattle; two others periſh'd at their Moorings, and of the five, only one eſcap'd, the other four being broke to Pieces, but part of the Men are ſav'd. Barks of 60 Tons were blown two Leagues up into the Land over the Tops of high Trees. Of the four Dutch Ships in the River, three were loſt, with all the Men and Cargoes, but the other eſcap'd, tho' very roughly handled. Our Company had three Ships at Chandernagoe, which happily came to no Damage, of which Philibert is one. We are aſſured that 300,000 People have periſhed in the Storm; but I believe the Number is exaggerated; a prodigious Quantity of Cattle of all Sorts, a great many Tygers in the lower Ganges, and ſeveral Rhinoceroes were drown'd; even a great many Caymans, amphibious Animals, were ſtifled by the furious Agitation of the Waters, and alſo an inuumerable Quantity of Birds were beat down into the River by the Storm: In ſhort, this Hurricane was the moſt dreadful that has ever been heard of in India. The Water roſe 40 Feet higher than uſual in the Mouth of the Ganges, gradually diminiſhing for the Space of 60 Leagues in remounting the River. [N. B. The Ganges is one of the chief Rivers in the Eaſt-Indies, which, as alſo the Indus, ariſes out of Mount Caucaſus, and runs croſs the Country from North to South.

June 10. In gleaning the laſt Mail from Holland, we hear that the Grand Vizier ſince his Arrival at Bender, has been heard to boaſt, that he will not return to Conſtantinople till he carries the Keys of Oczakow and Aſoph to the Grand Seignior.

NEW-

NEW-YORK, Sept. 4. By a private Letter from Georgia, we hear, That the Spaniards have taken Poſſeſſion of the Iſland St. George, and have reinforced the old Fort, and hoiſted Spaniſh Colours, and that a Spaniſh Sloop gave Chaſe to the Georgia Scout Boat, which is a direct Violation of the Agreement which Mr. Oglethorpe made with the Governor of St. Auguſtine; for when Frederica was firſt ſettled, theSpaniards complained much of the Incroachments of the Engliſh; and upon that a Conference was held at St. George's, which is about 30 Miles to the Southward of Frederica, and 40 Miles to the Northward of Auguſtine, and upon an Accomodation this Iſland of St. George was to be Boundaries of the two Provinces, and to remain in Neutrality.
